

When Must a Crash Report be Filed?
M.G.L. Chapter 90A, Section 24B requires that a crash report be filed if a person is injured or (iii) in violation of the law. The crash report must be filed with the person completing the report. If the officer is not present at the scene, the report must be based on his/her knowledge of the crash. The report must be filed with the person completing the report and he/she is required to accept the scene even if damaged.
